

Carla da Costa Coelho

Vice-Presidente
do Conselho Diretivo

Carla Sofia Sobral da Costa Coelho

Academic and specific training:

Degree in Computer and Computer Engineering, by Instituto Superior Técnico (IST), Universidade Técnica de Lisboa;
Advanced Management Program for Executives, by Católica-Lisbon School of Business & Economics, Universidade Católica Portuguesa;
Training from the University of Linz in Vienna, in collaboration with Brigham Young University in CeBPM - Business Process Management;
Certification in Project Management - Level D by APOGEP & IMPA.

Professional experience:

October 2020 – Vice-president of the Board of Directors of Instituto de Informática, I.P. February 2016 - member of the Board of Directors of Instituto de Informática, IP, responsible for the Architecture and Development, Administration of Systems and User Support Departments;
From November 2009 to December 2015 - Advisor to the direction of the Project for the Modernization of the Identity Card and Computerization of the Criminal Record in Angola (Ministry of Justice and Human Rights of Angola), by the company DGM - Sistemas, Lda.
From January to October 2009, quality consultant and coordinator of the Project Management Office (PMO) at DGM - Sistemas, Lda.
From September 1999 to December 2009 – Consultant and project manager at Unisys Portugal, with special focus on the development of modernization projects and implementation of document management and workflow platforms for the Public Administration.